RFC DIRECTOR ADMITS GIVING FRIEND BREAK

Willett Testifies to Committee He Departed from Usual Procedure as "Personal Favor"

FAVORITISM CHARGED

Washington, Feb. 22—(AP)—One director of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation today admitted giving a special break to the loan application of a personal friend, who recently became an RFC director himself.

William E. Willett, the director, testified to senate investigators that he departed from usual procedure "as a personal favor" to C. Edward Rowe, a loan applicant who subsequently was named an RFC director last September.

Willett said he personally assigned the RFC examiner who made recommendations on a $300,000 loan the RFC made last April 10 to the Harrington and Richards Arms Co., of Worcester, Mass., of which Rowe was principal owner.

When Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) asked Willett if he had not "departed from the usual procedure" in personally assigning the examiner, Willett answered.

"Yes, sir x x x I did it as a personal favor to Judge Rowe. Judge Rowe has been a personal friend of mine for years."

Committee members closed in with questions on Willett, who had opened his testimony with a denial of ever having "consciously yielded" to influence, as charged in recent report of the committee.

"You would do that (personally assign the load examiner) for any friend of yours?" Senator Douglas asked.

"I would," Willett said.

Willett testified at a senate banking subcommittee's hearings on whether there has been favoritism in RFC loans.

A subcommittee report to the senate earlier this month included a statement that two former RFC directors had described Rowe as "Willett's candidate" for a vacancy.

First Phase of Study Leading to Atom-Power Craft Announced by Commission

Washington, Feb. 22—(AP)—The Air Force and the Atomic Energy Commission announced today completion of the first phase of study leading to atom-powered aircraft.

A joint statement on the conclusion of their "NEPA" project (Nuclear Energy for Propulsion of Aircraft) said "other projects being supported by the Air Force and the AEC in the field of nuclear powered flights will be continued."

The statement made no mention of who will head the next phase.

DWELLINGS DAMAGED BY COLLAPSE OF WALL

Pittsburgh, Feb. 22—(AP)—Collapse of an 18-inch-thick stone retaining wall has sent tons of earth and rock sliding against two dwellings in the northside section.

The rain-soaked hillside along Overbeck street continued to sag today, threatening to smash the two frame houses. Three families occupying the houses were ordered Tuesday to evacuate.

The NEPA project was directed by the Fairchild Engine and Airplane Corporation, Hagerstown, Md., as a prime contractor to the Air Force. The Navy Bureau of Aeronautics shared the cost. Nine other engine companies participated as sub-contractors. The NEPA project will be terminated April 30.

The announcement said "the facilities and equipment (at Oak Ridge, Tenn.) used in this work will be utilized in other programs and temporary buildings will be dismantled."

This appeared to indicate that the next phase will be carried on elsewhere, presumably at Lockland where General Electric is building jet engines and is expanding both production and research facilities.

The AEC and the Air Force "highly commended the pioneering research and accomplishments of Fairchild and the Associated Aviation Engine Manufacturing Companies" for their part in NEPA.

V. A. PLAN CRITICIZED

Harrisburg, Feb. 22—(AP)—Reduction in the number of beds at Butler Veterans Administration Hospital drew criticism from the state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars today. Louis G. Feldmann, in letters to Senators Edward Martin and James H. Duff, said the reduction was "not understandable in view of the lists of veterans waiting to be treated for tuberculosis."

Department Commander and Auxiliary President of Legion Are Warren Guests Today

A joint luncheon meeting for more than 60 members of the American Legion and the Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary and Optimist service clubs of Warren was held at the YWCA at noon today.

Main speaker for the occasion was Joseph S. McCracken, of Kingston, Pennsylvania, Department Commander of the American Legion.

He told of the Legion activities along the lines of rehabilitation and care of veterans, care of widows and children of men who died on battlefields, and of Americanism work and junior baseball activities.

He said the services of the entire membership of the American Legion in Pennsylvania, some 300,000 men, had been offered for civil defense service, but that there was still considerable confusion in the whole defense program that would have to be ironed out.

LeRoy Schneck, program director of WNAE was master of ceremonies for the program. Seated at the speakers' table with McCracken were Willis Lundahl, local American Legion Post commander; Louis Vissa, senior vice commander; Louis T. Clegg, Past President; Dr. James Giunta, Kiwanis President; Paul Harrington, and Optimists President George Nelson.

Commander McCracken arrived in Warren early this morning, and immediately started in upon a busy schedule of appearances arranged for him by the committee in charge. Others who reached Warren during the morning for the dinner and dance are Mrs. Howard McKay, state auxiliary president, Springfield; Mrs. Frances Hanlon, state vice president, Port Allegany, and Mrs. Woodward Hall, of Emporia.

The banquet at the YWCA this evening is scheduled for 6:30 o'clock, and reservations have been made for about 100 members of the Legion Post and Auxiliary. A large number of visitors from posts in the county are also expected.

Post Commander Donald C. McComas will be toastmaster for the dinner.

Commander McCracken gave a short patriotic talk to students at the Warren High School in assembly this morning, with juniors and seniors composing the audience in the auditorium, while sophomores listened to the speech in their home rooms over the public address system.

The distinguished guest, introduced by Willis Lundahl, commander of Chief Complanter Post,

NO DECISION ON MARGIOTTI RESIGNATION

Harrisburg, Feb. 22—(AP)—Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti left the way open today for his resignation soon—if it would break the senate deadlock over confirmation of the governor's cabinet.

He denied, however, a report that he would resign before noon today. Sen. John H. Dent, Democratic floor leader, said yesterday he had learned the attorney general would resign "within 24 hours."

Margiotti held a news conference last night after an hour-long conference with Gov. John S. Fine. Both he and Fine were non-committal concerning the exact date of Margiotti's expected resignation.

Margiotti said, "it may be on or before April 1 or thereafter."

He was asked whether he would resign if it meant confirmation of the Fine cabinet, deadlocked in the senate for more than a month.

"I would take it under serious consideration if it would ease the deadlock," the attorney general answered.

But he added that he didn't know whether his resignation would end the stalemate.

"It might make it worse," he said.

Senate Democrats, their 20 votes enough to block all Fine's cabinet nominations, have withheld confirmation on the ground the governor first must submit the name of an attorney general.

Fine has held the Margiotti appointment not to be confirmed until the end of the legislature.

The Pittsburgh lawyer was appointed by former Gov. James D. Flaherty last year.

"I have not asked the attorney general to resign," said Fine last night. "I will not ask him to resign."

Margiotti said he would be in Harrisburg today and tomorrow for possible further conferences with Fine. He refused to say whether he expected to resign before Monday when the legislature reconvenes after a recess called yesterday.

He told newsmen he believes his successor will have to continue investigation of "free work" charges in Democratic-controlled Pittsburgh. That inquiry has aroused the ire of senate Democrats.

Professor Charged With Concealing Commie Affiliation

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 22—(AP)—An assistant chemistry professor, charged with concealing Communist party membership in filling out an atomic research questionnaire, awaited formal arrest today and predicted he would be vindicated.

Richard N. Lewis, a faculty member of the University of Delaware and a former employee of the General Electric Company in Schenectady, N. Y., was expected to be taken into custody today at his home in Newark, Del.

The U. S. Marshall at Wilmington, Del., was waiting for arrival of a warrant for the arrest.

Lewis, 34, was indicted by a federal grand jury in Albany yesterday. He was accused of making a "false, fictitious and fraudulent statement" on a personal security questionnaire form of the Atomic Energy Commission, while working for General Electric.

Lewis was not assigned to atomic work, GE said.

The indictment alleged that

Runaway Kiddies From Jamestown Are Picked Up Here

Two grade school youngsters were back at their home in Summit street Jamestown today after their efforts to run away from home in Warren last night about midnight.

Eleven-year-old Bobby Nelson told police he decided to run away yesterday afternoon and that his sister, Patricia, 7, insisted on going along. They said they hitchhiked a ride to Warren, arriving here about midafternoon. They wandered around Warren's business district for hours and were picked up by police when they were noticed still on the streets about midnight.

They told police their mother and father had moved to Warren recently, and that they had been locked out of the house and didn't know where their mother was. When no calls for missing youngsters came into the police station, Officer Bill Hewitt took the youngsters home with him and gave them lodgings for the night. After they had a hearty breakfast this morning, the youngsters changed their story and admitted they had run away from home. They were escorted back to Jamestown today by police officers from that city.

ENGLAND FACES STRIKE

London, Feb. 22—(AP)—Labor Minister Aneurin Bevan met for 50 minutes this morning with the heads of three rail unions in a last ditch effort to avert a strike of some 600,000 British railroad workers. Bevan told reporters "nothing yet" as he hurried from the conference to the weekly cabinet meeting at 10 Downing street to report on the situation.

CHAMBERS SIGNS

Pittsburgh, Feb. 22—(AP)—Cliff Chambers, the Pittsburgh Pirates' most effective pitcher last season, finally came to terms on his 1951 contract today. Yesterday calls for Harold E. Stassen, University of Pennsylvania president, to testify tomorrow afternoon. He will be followed Saturday morning by Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the 1948 GOP presidential candidate.

Senate Republican Policy Leader Taft of Ohio and Wherry probably will testify Monday.

The four do not see exactly eye-to-eye on the troops issue, although Dewey and Stassen tend to align themselves with the administration's thinking on an aid program, while Taft and Wherry do not.

Stassen and Taft contended with Dewey for the 1948 Republican nomination and the possibility exists the three may again be rivals in 1952 although all have disclaimed they are seeking the nomination.

New Offensive Announced By MacArthur 24 Hours After Its Start Meets Mild Resistance

Tokyo, Feb. 22—(AP)—Allied forces smashed northward today on a 60-mile rainswept front aiming to kill, main or capture all Reds in the mired mountains and valleys of central Korea.

Advances in this new offensive—"Operation Killer"—ranged up to 12 miles on the east-central sector and up to 8½ on the central valley, north of Winju.

Resistance was spotty most of the day but was stiffening at dusk as Allied spearheads neared the main forces of the dug-in Chinese and North Korean Reds. An estimated 40,000 Reds are south of parallel 38. The Allied objective is to wipe them out.

General MacArthur announced the new push today, nearly 24 hours after it began without fanfare.

Field dispatches tonight reported an American division on the right flank of the United Nations line splashed 12 miles to within three miles south of the valley town of Pyongchang. Deep mud and Red mines slowed the advance of other units in the area.

The main Chinese Communist strength was arrayed in and around Hoengsong, 10 miles north of Wonju in the central sector.

A tank-led American spearhead advanced to within four road miles of Hoengsong by nightfall. The Chinese earlier had fought briefly and then ran—some in panic.

A field dispatch said that at dusk Thursday American machine-gunned and rifled were dueling from neighboring ridges with Chinese machine-gunned and burp (automatic rifle) gunners.

The U. N. forces were moving carefully over every hill and dale, leaving no foxhole or crag uncovered. But no major contract with the Reds was reported.

The last obstacle to the Allied troops of five nations was the weather.

They were beset by rain, snow, fog, mud, washed-out bridges, raging streams and landslides. Such conditions virtually ruled out close aerial support at the outset. But U. S. Air Force, Marine, Navy, Australian and South African warplanes roared through holes in the clouds Thursday to plaster Red targets.

Teamed up in the new hunter-killer drive were American, British, Australian, New Zealand and South Korean troops. They moved up behind tanks, self-propelled guns, weapons carriers and jeeps.

The rugged front extends in an arc from a point near Yangpyong, 27 miles east-southeast of Seoul, to Pyongchang, on the east-central sector. Wonju, 25 miles west of Pyongchang, is roughly in the center of the kick-off point.

The biggest Communist force was dug in the lofty mountains.

Cutbacks Have Not Hit Auto Industry

Detroit, Feb. 22—(AP)—Production cutbacks have not yet hit the auto industry.

The factories this week will build 178,196 vehicles, Automotive News estimated today. Included in the total will be 146,139 cars and 32,037 trucks.

"It will be the most cars and trucks turned out in any week so far this year," the trade paper said, "and compares well with some of the best weekly totals obtained in last year's record-breaking production performance."

Last week United States output totaled 138,087 cars and 31,163 trucks.

The paper estimates February output at 489,000 cars and 109,000 trucks.

Stassen Says the American Education System Has 'Some Serious Deficiencies'

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 22—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen says the American education system has "some serious deficiencies."

He says disloyalty convictions of college graduates and recent arrests of student athletes on bribery charges are partly the fault of U. S. education.

These reflect "a moral and ethicalious," he added.

Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania and former governor of Minnesota, stated yes.

Today that these failings can be corrected by:

1. "Greater teaching and emphasis to the youth of the land of the moral and ethical values in human life."

2. "Increased stimulation and preparation of the students of today for a role as active informed citizens of the free society of tomorrow."

3. "Definite education of numbers of the most gifted and competent youth of today for top policy leadership of the nation in the half century ahead."

RENT CONTROL
NEWS RELEASE

Office of The Housing Exper-diter, Area Rent Office, 707
Commerce Building,
Erie, Penn'a

Question: It is my feeling that the 15% allowance which I have received for increased costs of taxes, services, maintenance is inadequate. My increases in taxes amounts to more than 15%. Is there any use in petitioning the rent office for a further increase?

Answer: If you can submit proof to the Rent Office that your actual increase in expenditures for taxes, maintenance, and services is greater than 15% over freeze date costs you will be given an adjustment in rent equivalent to such increase no matter how large an increase is required.

Question: My new landlord has taken away my garage and is insisting that I pay the water rent which the former landlord has always paid.

Answer: No landlord has any right to take away services to which a tenant in occupancy is entitled under the terms of the registration statement unless the landlord petitions the rent office for such decrease in services and the rent office issues an order permitting the reduction in services.

Any approval of decrease in services would generally call for a decrease in rent. Your landlord has no right to collect money for water rent if he is obligated to it under the terms of the registration statement. If the premises become vacant a landlord may decrease the services but must report such decrease to the Rent Office within 10 days on the form provided therefor.

Question: Is it necessary for a landlord to notify the local rent office that he has rented a unit never rented before?

Answer: Yes! A controlled unit being rented for the first time must be registered with the rent office within 30 days after it has been rented. If a controlled unit is not registered within 30 days any order reducing the rent to bring it into line with other comparable freeze date units will be retroactive to the date of first rental. However, if a controlled unit is registered within the 30 day period, any order reducing rent would not be retroactive but would be effective at the beginning of the next rental period after the order is issued. Attention is also called to the fact that, since April 1, 1949, units eligible for decontrol as result of substantial remodeling or conversion creating additional self contained dwelling units, are not decontrolled until an order increasing such rent.

the landlord files a decontrol petition with the rent office and an order is issued by the rent office decontrolling such unit.

Question: My tenant is moving out of my furnished apartment on March 1. If I put in furniture in the apartment will it still be under rent control?

Answer: Yes! The dwelling unit will still be under rent control even if furniture is provided. If furniture is provided you should petition the rent office for an increase in rent. No additional rent may be collected over and above the present legal rent as registered in the rent office unless and until the rent office has issued an order increasing such rent.

THE SPIRIT OF WASHINGTON

All of us know that Washington and his ragged but gallant armies had to overcome extreme hardships before they finally defeated British forces and gained America her independence.

But perhaps not too many of us realize that for almost seven years Washington did not win a single major victory in the Revolutionary War. The record of those years is a dismal catalog of heartbreaking reverses. The bitter winter at Valley Forge is the universal symbol of that military misfortune.

The tide did not turn for Washington until the very end. The siege of Yorktown, begun in September of 1781, was a masterly operation. Washington's forces combined with allied French armies under Lafayette to compress Cornwallis' men into an ever-narrowing beachhead based on the broad York river.

With Chesapeake Bay blockaded by the French fleet, Cornwallis could not reinforce his troops nor keep them adequately supplied by sea. He had no land communications. Under intense bombardment in a small area from American and French cannon, Cornwallis finally surrendered.

His defeat was the climax of the Revolution. That single action wiped out at a stroke the long series of disheartening American reverses and insured ultimate triumph and freedom from British domination.

Washington's victory unquestionably owed much to Lafayette's assistance. But basically it was a triumph of unquenchable spirit, the spirit that simply would not admit defeat. Men who are really determined to be free are armed with a weapon that no oppressor, no tyrant can equal, no matter how frenzied or fanatic his following.

That spirit still lives in America. If it should ever be put to the test by the new tyrants in Russia, they will get the same dramatic demonstration of it that Washington gave the British nearly 200 years ago.

KID NICKEL FALTERS

First, New York's famous nickel subway fare bit the dust. Then the nickel cup of coffee. Not long ago, the nickel phone call in pay booths.

Today almost the last citadel of the nickel value is the five-cent Coca-Cola. And what do you think? Coca-Cola's competitors in the Chicago area have gone to court to try to force the company to abandon the nickel selling price.

The effort ought to fail. No doubt the rising tide of inflation is lapping at the citadel's edge anyhow. The nickel coke will probably vanish soon enough, without any artificial whipping up of the waves by fretful competitors.

One thing of which there's no scarcity -- plenty of bills both in Congress at Washington, and the State legislature in Harrisburg.

Less than five weeks now and spring will be welcomed officially. And Good Friday is but five weeks off.

CHRIST CALLS

Scripture Isaiah 1:18--Come now let us reason together, saith the Lord, though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow.

Matthew 11:28--Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest.

Amid all the turmoil and strife in the world today, men's hearts are failing them for fear. People are looking not only for peace in the world but peace of heart, a quietness that only Jesus the Saviour can give.

Commitment: Jesus calls first for each one of us to give ourselves in complete surrender to Him. For the very simple reason, that we may be an effective channel, through which Christ can reach a world lost in sin, and in desperate need of a Saviour. This might well be our commitment prayer, "Take my life and let it be, consecrated Lord to Thee". Compassion: After we have completely yielded our lives to the Heavenly Father's will, then we feel the impulse to tell our brother or the person we work with or the neighbor down the street. Oh Christian friend do you have the compassion that will drive you out in an unceasing endeavor to reach men and women for Christ? Is Christ your very life? If He is then people with whom you come in contact with day by day, will know that Christ is a living reality.

Commission: After this burning desire has come to see men and women saved, then you will be able to say, "Here am I Lord. Then Jesus will answer, "Follow Me--I will make you fishers of men". This very day Christ calls to you for a greater service, will you answer?

"Right!"

Snow Mold Is Winter-Bred Foe of Bent Grass

BY HENRY PREE
Written for NEA Service
It is none too soon to think of next summer's lawn, especially if yours is creeping bent. Unfortunately, one of the liabilities connected with a creeping bent lawn is its susceptibility to fungus diseases.

Present at this time is snow mold, a disease ever-present on the soil waiting for a favorable opportunity to spring into life and kill the grass. So completely does snow mold kill that it is usually necessary to replace the affected turf.

Snow mold becomes active at zero temperatures and when the soil is wet. Melting snow offers the ideal condition for the growth of this deadly fungus, but it may appear even though no snow is present.

In the early stages of the disease the fungus may appear as a thick cottony growth covering definite but irregular shaped patches. When wet the patches have a slimy feel. The fungus enters the grass blades and stems to break down the cell structure. As the grass dries it takes on a dirty, whitish-gray color.

It is not so difficult to distinguish between the damage of snow mold and other winter kill. In the latter case large, definite areas will be brown and dead looking.

Snow mold does not always destroy. Sometimes only the top growth is affected. Injury of snow rate recommended—about three ounces to 1000 square feet.

They should be put on with a pressure sprayer or sprinkling can, or mixed with dry sand or soil and spread by hand. The fungicide mixed with a bucket of sand is sufficient to cover a thousand square feet.

Snow mold and other grass diseases can be prevented to a marked degree if two applications of any of the recommended compounds are made, one in early spring and another after the ground has been thoroughly frozen in late fall.

QUIZZING THE GARDNER

If you have no pressure sprayer or sprinkling can, fungicides can be mixed with sand and applied by hand. A bucket of sand will cover 1000 square feet.

mold is also apt to show up after thaw in the late winter.

Certain mercuric and organic fungicides have been found effective against snow mold. Commercial compounds, procurable at the better garden supply shops, have been found effective as a preventative when used at the rate recommended—about three ounces to 1000 square feet.

Q—Are potted tulip and other bulbs which have been forced for early bloom indoors worth planting in the garden?—N. A.

A—All bulbs except the paper white narcissus may be planted out-of-doors. They cannot be forced two years in succession.

They will bear a few blooms the first spring after planting and more the next year. Keep them growing in the pots until the foliage turns yellow, then gradually withhold water. The bulbs should be stored in a cool dry place until planting time.

Q—Can sweet potato vines grow indoors for decoration be transplanted to the garden and will they produce tubers?—P. W.

A—Yes—about the first of May cut the numerous lengths of vine into 6-inch pieces, cutting just below a joint, and place in water. When the roots are 4 or 5 inches long, about June 1, plant in rows, spacing the rooted cuttings 15 inches apart in the row, with 30 inches between the rows.

Q—Are peanuts nuts?—B. S.

A—Peanuts are not nuts—they are merely peas. They fool most of us about the way they grow. The pod, which eventually may contain from one to three peas, first appears on the plant as a bright yellow blossom. Presently the branches bend downward and bury their ends in the ground, where the peanuts ripen and are dug up, like potatoes.

MacKenzie's Column

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Moscow press, marking the first anniversary of the Russo-Chinese Alliance, makes much of the claim that the joint actions of the two nations will have a powerful influence on the future of humanity.

Whether this is a correct forecast depends heavily on whether Bolshevism grows in strength or—as many Democratic observers believe—blows up because of mankind's refusal to be regimented. However, it strikes me that the Moscow prediction isn't to be tossed aside lightly without consideration.

Certainly as things now stand the vast Asiatic theatre, which contains more than half the world's population, presents a grave problem for the Democracies. It could be the decisive battlefield of the ideological struggle.

Many of these peoples still are living in primitive conditions, literally generations behind the western world. Poverty and hunger are the general rule.

Untold millions of Asiatics never see the time when they are no "hungry"—a fact which I know from personal observation during various trips to the Far East.

Naturally such conditions provide a fertile field for any sort of ideology which holds out big promises of betterment.

So the combination of the Soviet union and huge Red China comprise a formidable alliance, especially since much of their territories actually lie within eastern Asia. China, to be sure, suffers from the common ailment of poverty and hunger. But she does have a vast reservoir of manpower which is backed by Russian resources—military and otherwise.

This enables the Russo-Chinese combination to use force (as in Korea and French Indochina) or threats of force, with which to drive home the ideological spike. Revolutionary activities are being inspired and backed by the Russo-Chinese alliance, and this program is spreading.

It is, of course, too early to arrive at any final conclusion regarding the Asiatic situation. A long, hard conflict may lie ahead.

One of the earliest balloon ascensions on record was made at the coronation of the Chinese emperor Fo-Kien in 1306.

General Eisenhower Fights For Peace In Same Room He Used Fighting a War

By CARTER DAVIDSON
Versailles, France, Feb. 21—(AP)—General Dwight Eisenhower is going to fight for peace in the same rooms he used while fighting a war.

The first home for the general and his wife, Mamie, is a six-room suite on the first floor of the luxurious Trianon Palace Hotel. From that suite in 1944, General Eisenhower directed the supreme headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Force (Schaff) as it completed liberation of France and sped on toward the heart of Hitler's Germany.

His new job is commander of Supreme Headquarters, Allied powers in Europe (Shape), the international army being organized by the Atlantic pact countries to defend the western world against Communist aggression.

From the windows of his luxury suite, the general can look across the hotel's broad green garden to the 12-room villa he has been offered for a permanent residence.

This is the Villa Le Noviciat owned by the fabulously rich commandant Paul-Louis Weiller, an aircraft engine maker and personal friend of "Ike's." The luxurious appointed villa is adjacent to the Hotel Trianon palace gardens. Hotel Manager Jacques Rey said he told General Eisenhower last month that if he moved into the villa, the hotel would cut an opening into the towering hedge fence to connect the villa directly to the hotel.

Eisenhower lived briefly in the Villa Le Noviciat when he was SHAEF chief. Conspicuous on a front room table is a copy of "Crusade in Europe," a book by Eisenhower.

Beside the book, carefully framed under glass, is recent letter from General Eisenhower, thanking old friend Weiller for a magnum of cognac sent to the Eisenhowers in New York in late January.

Since security is a priority worry of the officers on Eisenhower's staff, the villa should be well-protected as a residence. It is protected by eight-foot concrete and steel walls. The only entrance, leading down a winding, shaded lane, is about 200 yards from the villa itself. And—there's an air-raid shelter, with signs in German since it was Nazi-built, in the yard.

The villa has three self-contained apartments on the second floor,

A Cappella Choir Giving Mid-Winter Concert at Beaty

All roads will lead to Beaty Junior High School this evening for the mid-winter concert of the Warren High School A Cappella Choir, which will begin at 8:15 o'clock in the school gym under the direction of Carroll A. Fowler.

The program is divided into two groups, the first religious in character and the second lighter in nature, containing some folk songs.

Specials will include four songs by the group selected to appear in the District Chorus in Albion in January, supplemented by several other voices to achieve balance. These numbers will be "Of Thee I Sing"; "Cindy", a mountain dance song; "The Snow", and "Song of the Halutzim", Palestinian folk motifs arranged by Harvey Gaul. Phyllis Ristau will be soprano soloist in the last of these numbers, which tells of the pioneers in Palestine.

In another section, the girls' trio composed of Ann Dalrymple, Carol Barrett and Anne Israel, accompanied by Stavroula Fanos, will sing three numbers, including one of current popularity, "Tzena, Tzena, Tzena".

Jim Cooney has been given two tenor solos, "The Donkey Serenade" and "Tea for Two".

Other soloists will include Richard Smith and Don Smith, while accompanists are Jerry Fisher, Carol Amacher, Carol Barrett and Johan Stohol.

For their final number, the choristers will sing "Ballad for Americans", with F. Everett Borg as guest baritone soloist. This patriotic number tells of America's progress during its early history from the time of the Revolutionary War, with Mr. Borg singing the role of America.

Mr. Fowler has announced that tickets for the concert will be available at the door this evening.

Drama Department Will Have Program

Following a one o'clock luncheon at the Woman's Club next Monday afternoon, the regular meeting of the Drama Department will be held and Mrs. Spencer Myer will be in charge of presenting a modern play.

At the February meeting of Community Service Department, a brief article on income taxes was read by Mrs. Smith, public affairs chairman. Mrs. R. C. Schorner appointed Mrs. C. H. Frantz, Mrs. C. A. Rudiger and Mrs. J. P. Fenstermacher as a nominating committee. Mrs. W. F. Clinger called for enlistments for a Red Cross Nurse's Aide course that is being started.

R. J. Costley, Allegheny Forest supervisor, gave an interesting and enlightening talk on "Forest Conservation", with emphasis on the local forest area.

He gave as the fundamental precept of national forests: They are to be used and enjoyed for hunting, fishing and recreational purposes.

The function of national forests, which cover 10% of the land in the United States: 1. Carry out a cooperative aspect, such as putting out forest fires.

2. Basic research in managing wooded areas. 3. Administering to national forests, of which there are 151 in 42 states.

The national forests, the speaker said, produce one-sixth of all commercial timber, one-third of all wild life is cared for within them, and in the west cattle and sheep graze on government property.

The Allegheny National Forest, he recalled, was created in 1923 and constitutes three-quarters of a million acres. Originally, it was started as a project to raise timber and to stabilize the Allegheny River.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Hertzler was hostess for tea, assisted by Mrs. Bloom and Mrs. Fanaritis.

A beautiful candlelight service department in Warren Conservatory of Music, sang "O Promise Me". At the conclusion of the service, he sang Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer".

Candles were lighted by the ushers, Howard Myers and Diehl Ott, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, and David Leidig, USAF, was best man.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was fashioned of white satin with lace yoke and long sleeves coming to points over her hands. A cap of lace and orange blossoms held her veil and she carried white lilacs and fleurs d'amour centered with a lavender orchid. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, Charlotte Gilman, Albany, wore gold satin, while the bridesmaid, Kathleen Spotts, Rochester, was in shrimps-colored satin. Both carried variegated carnations combined with acacia and wore headresses of matching fresh flowers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hildreth wore navy blue dress and accessories with an orchid. Mrs. Blair, mother of the bridegroom, wore a sand and brown ensemble with an orchid.

A hundred guests were received at the reception which followed. An attractive table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, Mrs. David Williams and Mrs. Ralph Hildreth presided at the tea table.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Buffalo, Albany, Erie and North East.

From Warren, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Garber, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Leidig, Byron Swanson and Dale Soderberg.

Divorce Is Often Like Meek Surrender to Foe

A WIFE writes to me: "In a recent column you said that a wife has many advantages over 'the other woman' if she acts wisely. Will you please list these advantages and let me—and hundreds of others—know whether a wife who held on ever succeeded in outwitting her rival? If you will do that you might give us new courage to go on."

First let's list some of those possible advantages. Though the "other woman" has declared war on the wife, the wife should be fairly well entrenched. She has the man's name. She shares his home. Where there are children, she is mother as well as wife.

In addition to all that, unless the man is a complete no-good, however infatuated he may be with another woman he is going to think long and hard before running out on a wife who has been his partner or years, and with whom he shares many memories of happier days. He is going to feel some responsibility to his children—so that it won't be easy for him to run out on them. And the home itself may ave more of a hold on him than he realizes.

ALSO, if the wife has been married for any length of time she should know her husband better than anybody else and therefore be able to make the one appeal that is likely to make him face the situation or what it is.

The wife can either throw away all of these advantages or she can quit to herself "This marriage is worth fighting for—so I'm not going out and run."

As to whether "a wife who held on ever succeeded in outwitting her rival," let me quote from a letter that came in the same mail as ours:

"My husband and I have pulled through things that would have resulted in divorce in many homes, including another woman at one time. After his affair he came back to me and our two children and is devoted all of his efforts to our happiness. Instead of feeling bitter now (I was bitter for a while) I think of all the happiness I could have missed if I had divorced him, and I am grateful to God that I didn't make that mistake."

"Out of the depths of despair and poverty he has become a successful, respected businessman."

"I admire his business sense and I tell him so every day in one way another. I know I have brought him and the children closer to each other by telling him how much they love and respect him. I'm not bragging. I'm just a woman who is loved by her husband and children and as I count my blessings I am immensely grateful that all have might have been thrown away—and wasn't."

Union Wants Rail Profits Impounded By the Government

on the RFC board. Rowe is now vice chairman of the board, although the senate has never confirmed the nomination President Truman gave him last fall.

Willett maintained the loan to Rowe's Arms Company was a good one. He pointed out it has been repaid in full.

Willett denied specifically that Donald Dawson, a White House aide, or E. Merl Young, whose wife is a White House stenographer, can or do influence him.

The banking subcommittee, headed by Senator Fulbright (D-Ark), said in a report to the senate earlier this month that Willett and some other RFC directors had been influenced by Dawson and Young. President Truman called the report asinine. The subcommittee then ordered the present hearings, frankly as a rebuttal to the president.

Among other things, the committee wants to find out whether there is need for changing the railway labor act which provides machinery for mediation of rail labor disputes.

The government seized control of the railroads last August after a series of work stoppages that punctuated the argument over the workers demands for higher pay and changes in working conditions.

In opening the inquiry, Chairman Murray (D-Mont) said the committee intends to find out why the dispute has not been settled after two years.

Murray called it a threat to the general economy and the defense effort.

In advance of a public hearing Senator Humphrey (D-Minn) contended that both sides have failed to bargain in good faith. He said collective bargaining "appears to have broken down completely."

LARGE BEQUESTS

Pittsburgh, Feb. 22—(AP)—Twenty thousand dollars of the $50,000 estate left by Arthur Louis De Zouche, 82, of Fox Chapel, goes to four Masonic organizations. The bequests are $5,000 each to the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, the William L. Elkins Masonic Orphanage for Girls and the William L. Elkins Lodge No. 646, all of Philadelphia, and the Grand Lodge of Masons at Elizabethtown.

GOODWILL GESTURE

Portsmouth, England, Feb. 22—(AP)—British naval vessels in harbor here and the Swedish cruiser Gotland broke out their gayest bunting today in honor of Washington's birthday. They did it as a gesture of courtesy for the men and officers of the U. S. Naval Stores Ship Wyandot now in port here.

Monsignor Claims Catholics Tortured

PROPOSED SEAWAY IS CALLED 'MONSTROSITY'

Washington, Feb. 22—(AP)—To Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa) the proposed St. Lawrence seaway is "an economic monstrosity."

That was the term; Van Zandt, a member of the house armed services committee and the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, used last night in a radio broadcast (ABC).

The representative of a central Pennsylvania coal mining and railroad district estimated the project would cost one billion dollars to build and another billion to erect military defenses for it.

A longtime opponent, Van Zandt said the St. Lawrence proposal would "divert our manpower, materials and financial resources to a project that cannot possibly be completed before 1956 to 1955."

CHANGE OF VENUE IN PROBE MAY BE ASKED

Pittsburgh, Feb. 22—(AP)—Special Prosecutor W. Denning Stewart says he may ask a change of venue for trials resulting from the state's special grand jury investigation.

The trials will stem from free work charges in Pittsburgh and anti-gambling drives throughout Allegheny county.

Stewart will have to overcome a legal barrier if the trials are to be moved out of Allegheny county. A 1938 state law forbids the state supreme court to transfer a criminal trial from one county to another.

The 1938 statute has never been challenged.

The special jury, now probing racket and other activities at Homestead, has recessed until Monday.

126 AMERICANS TO MEET ROYAL COUPLE

London, Feb. 22—(AP)—King George VI and Queen Elizabeth will meet nearly 600 embassy and legation folks—126 of them Americans—at the season's first royal presentation party in the lush state rooms of Buckingham Palace tonight.

The guests, in full military or civilian evening regalia, will file before the crowned heads from 9:30 p. m. on and then will make for food-pyramided buffet tables in the king's gilded supper room.

Guests lining up for the big moment before the king and queen will be introduced by the ambassador or top minister of their nation. U. S. Ambassador Walter S. Gifford, attending with Mrs. Gifford, will present the Americans.

BARBARA AND ROBERT CUT MARITAL TIES

Los Angeles, Feb. 22—(AP)—Barbara Stanwyck, gray-haired at 43, has liquidated her 11-year-old marriage to Robert Taylor.

She testified yesterday that the 39-year-old actor requested a divorce when he returned from picture making in Italy; that he said he had enjoyed his freedom abroad and wanted to continue to do as he pleased.

His announcement shocked her so that she became ill and had to place herself under the care of a physician, she told Superior Judge Thurmond Clarke.

Married in 1939, the movie couple separated last Dec. 14.

Industry Sets Forest Production Pattern

Forests do come back. An interval of 22 years separates these photographs which were made from the same camera point. This industry-owned tract in the northern forest area produces regular crops of wood.

Forest growth never stops. The annual sawtimber growth in the United States today is nearly four times greater than it was 30 years ago. Forestry is on the upswing as America heads into the second half of the twentieth century.

These conclusions, with facts and figures to prove them, are forcefully set forth in a recently published booklet, "The Nation's Wood Supply," now being distributed nationally by American Forest Products Industries.

Replenishing factors are at work throughout all forested areas of the United States," the booklet points out, "... they are ushering in a new forest economy. Together, they are adding to man's skill in growing and using wood wisely."

The publication lists nine replenishing factors that are closing the gap between wood removal and wood growth in the United States. They are:

1. Incentive. The value of timber has risen to the point where it now pays to grow and harvest trees as a crop.

2. Protection. The American public is becoming forest fire conscious. Increased fire fighting effectiveness and fire prevention education are reducing timber losses. At the same time, progress is being made against forest-destroying insects and diseases.

3. Sustained Yield. Harvesting practices that mean planned cuts at regular intervals from every acre of forestland are becoming the rule on large industrial holdings. Through the American Tree Farm System, now active in 29 states, this type of forest management is being accepted by small woodland owners, too.

4. Reforestation. Last year the forest nurseries of the nation produced enough seedling trees to plant half a million acres. Man is helping Nature turn idle acres into living forests.

5. Scientific Forestry. Forestry is one of the fastest growing professions. Employment of foresters by wood-using industries has increased sixfold in the past 15 years.

6. Wood technology. Through research, man is learning more about trees and how to use them. Tree types once thought worthless are now being put to use.

7. Managed harvests. The wood yield from each acre is being increased by harvesting trees for specific markets. More usable wood is being taken off each acre of timber harvested.

8. Utilization. More useful products are being made out of each tree. Profitable uses for tops, bark, slabs, sawdust and other manufacturing leftovers have been developed.

9. Education. All over the United States the forest industries and public agencies are guiding small woodland owners along the path of sound and profitable woodlot management.

"Although ultimate goals in forest protection, management and productivity have yet to be reached," says American Forest Products Industries, "a pattern for bringing forests to full production has been set."

No Decision on Margiotti Resignation

"The Pittsburgh probe in itself has nothing to do with the subject (of his resignation) because that probe is going to last a long time," he added.

Margiotti explained, however, that he has some other "tasks" to be completed under instruction from the governor.

Asked whether he would resign before completion of the "tasks", the attorney general answered: "I may or may not."

He did not elaborate on the nature of the "tasks".

18TH CENTURY DRAWING ROOM CHARM—Marion Whipple, program chairman for the Wednesday afternoon meeting of Philomel Club members at the Woman's Club, created a picture out of the past in both setting and participants for her program of 18th century drawing room music. Behind the scenes in the candlelighted room, Mrs. Whipple provided glimpses of the era of Mozart and his contemporaries and announced the numbers as they were presented. Assisting her with this unusually artistic afternoon were the following club members, costumed as seen above: Barbara DeFrees, Jean Beach, Florence Stevens, Jane Sanford, Violet Borg, Eleanor Ristau, Rachel Eaton, Allie Russell, Lillian Larsen, Adelaide Swanson, Marie Cease, Gloria Valone, and Gladys Habenlocher. For the tea which followed, Mrs. Harry Clawson provided a George Washington setting, inviting Mrs. Robert Shieh and Mrs. Robert Schorman to preside at the attractive table.

The soil in a section of western Pennsylvania is the best in the United States for collecting water," said Sen. Bernard B. McGinnis (D-Allegheny). "It could be used to great advantage in Pittsburgh and vicinity."

Family Night At First Presbyterian Is Well Attended

Over a hundred members attended the third, in a series of seven, Family Night Lenten Services last night at the First Presbyterian Church. Dinner was served in the dining room at 6 o'clock by a committee of the Woman's Association headed by Mrs. Thomas J. Scalise. Assisting were members of Circles 1 and 10 of the group, under the leadership of Mrs. Maxwell Arnold and Mrs. W. R. Boren.

The worship service departed somewhat from the usual series in that it was observed as Men's Night and officers of the newly formed Presbyterian Men were in charge.

Nat W. Drake, vice president, presided. Assisting him were Robert Dietsch who read the Scripture lesson, Martin Smith leading the responsive reading and Vance Weld offering the evening prayer. Carroll Fowler and 15 members of the Westminster Choir had charge of the music, the Choir having for its anthem: "O Savior of the World" by Goss.

Mr. Drake, in the course of his remarks, traced the recent history of the local Chapter of Presbyterian Men as it was instituted at the local church. He also gave a comprehensive account of the Chicago Convention which he attended as a representative of the local chapter. After discussing the objectives of the local group Mr. Drake described how the various speakers at the Convention wove their remarks around the different aims and objectives and furnished down-to-earth ideas as to how the local chapter could help the growth of the church.

Declaring that inter-denominational aid and brotherhood is one of the chief aims of Presbyterian Men, wherever they may be found, the speaker said that the world today must maintain its physical security; but that physical security without Spiritual Security is impossible.

Commenting on the Lenten theme for the evening: "We Call Him Lord—And Call Others to Him" Mr. Drake said; "but, do we call others to Him?"

Touching on the growth of Presbyterian Men Mr. Drake pointed out that there are now 1,344 Chapters with more than 191,000 members. "And, he said, "each man counts as one man, not a fraction!"

Mr. Drake also stated that over one thousand laymen from all walks of life and from every state in the Union attended the Chicago sessions. He gave interesting excerpts from some of the talks delivered by outstanding laymen and in conclusion thanked the membership of the church for making it possible for him to attend the convention and added that he hoped it would be possible to pass on to the other men in the group some of the "spark and inspiration" he had received.

Dr. Robert S. Steen, pastor of the church, announced that the dinner next Wednesday, February 28th, would be in the nature of a tureen dinner. Meat, dessert, coffee and milk will be served by the committee. Those attending will bring a tureen, dishes and silver, also bread, butter and rolls. It was also stated that those attending next Wednesday are asked to notify the church office as usual.

The lay leader next Wednesday will be Mr. Willis Lundahl. Dr.

Steen will have for his topic: "We

Call Him Lord—And Pray With Him".

Millions of Trees To Be Planted In State This Spring

Harrisburg — Numerous municipalities and water companies throughout the state are ordering thousands of trees for reforestation as the Department of Forests and Waters' mammoth tree planting program for 1951 swings into action. Forests and Waters Secretary M. F. Draemel said today.

"During the 1951 spring and fall planting season, the department will distribute 50 million forest tree seedlings, shrubs and vines for reforestation of sub-marginal farm lands, watershed protection, soil conservation and for timber production," the secretary said. Included in the municipalities and water companies that have ordered trees from the department for spring planting are the Hanover Municipal Water Works, Hanover, with a 22,000 tree order; the Bloomsburg Water Co., Bloomsburg, 3,000; City of Bethlehem, 50,000; Roaring Creek Water Co., Shamokin, 2,500; and the Mountain Water Supply Co., Greensburg, 15,000.

"Since 1909 when the department's reforestation program first began more than 36 million trees have been sold to water companies and municipalities for watershed protection and timber production," the secretary stated.

Other communities throughout the state which have purchased trees during recent years include Uniontown, Washington, Waynesburg, New Salem and California. The department's Harrisburg and 24 field offices are now accepting orders for the shipment of forest tree seedlings from six state forest nurseries during April. Tree seedling, shrub and vine stock may be purchased from the department for $6.00 per thousand.

Mass Meeting For Red Cross Drive Workers Planned

Warren's 1951 Red Cross Campaign to raise $21,690 will start officially with a mass meeting for all workers, February 27. This kick-off rally will be held in the large court room of the Court House, and the meeting is scheduled to start promptly at 7:30 p. m. Donald Schuler, 1951 campaign chairman, will preside, and introduce the speaker of the evening, Joseph B. Lippincott, eastern area Red Cross field director.

A veteran of World War I and of two overseas tours of duty for the American Red Cross in World War II, Mr. Lippincott knows his American Red Cross. He supervised the field work of six overseas stations, including Red Cross operations at one of the largest airfields in the ETO, and at Air Corps Replacement Centers until January, 1943. He then returned to the United States for a period of four months during which time

The reason I seldom discuss them is that a low contract isn't much of a story. It's hard to work up much excitement over a bid of two diamonds or so.

Nevertheless, there are part-score hands that stick in your memory for years. For example, there's the time that Ivan Half, well-known Pittsburgh expert, sweated out a contract of one club doubled. (Just to indicate how long such a story sticks, this hand was played in the American Contract Bridge League's winter national championships at Miami Beach in December, 1948.)

West opened the king of spades and switched to the queen of diamonds after seeing dummy's spades. Mr. Half, playing the South hand, won with the ace of diamonds and casually returned the eight of hearts.

WPL REPORTING

Always, about this time of year, the winter season seems to be going on forever. The only change in the weather is that some days are wetter and colder than others. Something to break the monotony is needed at this point and the Warren Public Library is just the place to find variety in a book for every mood or occasion.

As a departure from dull history, for instance, there is Will Cuppy's DECLINE AND FALL OF PRACTICALLY EVERYBODY. This book combines actual history with a humorous approach and the result is a streamlined and jaunty version of the march of time.

For the jaded fan who has read one too many mysteries or one too many novels about tired young men, Henry Green writes stories with a touch of difference. One of his recent ones, CAUGHT, tells of people "caught" by war, government regulations, emotions and the other traps of modern living. His hero is a widower plunged into a new world by the war and the story is of his adjustment.

James Ullman can be depended upon for a good, exciting story. His RIVER OF THE SUN tells of an expedition on the Amazon searching for treasure and a legendary river. One glance out the window these days makes jungle life look good.

RETURN TO THE BEACH, by Margaret Shedd, is a well written and dramatic novel of four generations of American family life. The memories of a Civil War veteran are woven with the experiences of a veteran of World War II. Sensitive characterizations and romance are combined in this story of one family.

THE GREAT ESCAPE, by Paul Brickhill, is another of those hair-raising and scarcely believable escape stories of World War II. This is an account of 600 English and American air force officers in a German prison camp. The elaborate plan which they developed under the watching eyes of their guards is the basis of a story which proves much more exciting than fiction.

You can't trace the magic to any single feature...

All you know is that everything about this 1951 Packard is conspiring to make you forget there's anything mechanical about motoring.

You flash a wish to the new Packard Thunderbolt engine—and to its teammate, Packard's exclusive Ultramatic Drive—and the road ahead is suddenly behind you...with a silent smoothness that can't be matched.

You breeze along, cradled by a Limousine Ride that's as relaxing as a lullaby—and gradually you remember you've been missing the old kick-up at railroad crossings, the jab of the frost-breaks, the side-thrust of winds.

And bear in mind: Packard precision-built quality will keep this enchantment alive for years to come. So come in—drive the greatest Packard ever built! Within ten minutes, all other cars will seem tame!

Price Squeezes Rather Than Shortages Likely Clothing Industry Trouble Spots

By SAM DAWSON
New York—(AP)—Price squeezes rather than shortages are likely to be the trouble spots in the clothing industry this year, according to men's wear industry leaders.

They expect sales to be good this spring, having enjoyed one of their best Januaries on record. Costs are going up, however, and prices will have to follow, suit makers insist.

Some of them would be happier if the military forces would use blends of wool and synthetic fibers to help spread the available wool around for civilian needs. They contend the blends are just as serviceable.

Federal curbs on men's clothing seem unlikely before fall at the earliest, because the military clothing needs have been met so far without them, members of the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers are assured at their annual meeting here.

But the price news is not so good. Higher prices can be expected this year, and a year from this spring men's wool suits will cost a third more than now, the retailers are warned by the president of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers.

Suit makers, meanwhile, report that there is an increase in the cutting of fabrics that contain part synthetics. Record prices of wool spark the trend, but another factor is the development of new man-made fibers. This coming fall the clothing industry expects to test one of the latest—orion. Men's clothing made of fabrics from 25 to 40 per cent of the new synthetic fiber will be tried out.

Raw wool prices, meantime, set another record high yesterday in Australia. They've been doing that with monotonous regularity all winter. The wool trade, however, is fighting hard to ward off any big swing to synthetics—and this may develop into one of the biggest of industrial battles in the months ahead.

Supplies of clothing will hold up well throughout the year in almost all lines, government officials assure the retailers. The National Production Authority officials think that merchants who have been running up big inventories in fear of severe shortages are being rather foolish.

Officials scout the need for inventory controls at this time, however, on the theory that "the retailers who happen to have been overbuying have already used up their financial resources for this purpose and also their storage capacity."

Pittsburgh, Feb. 22—(AP)—A federal district court jury has awarded Mrs. John B. Patton, 33 of Pittsburgh $65,000 in the death of her husband, August 5, 1949. The suit was against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and the Duquesne Slag Products Co.

Before the presentations, Gen. Bradley accepted an American flag, presented by the Military Order of the Purple Heart, from Pvt. J. A. Frampton, Jr., 21, of Sarver, who lost both legs in the Korean war.

Freedoms Foundation is a non-profit, non-political, non-sectarian group chartered in 1949 to honor Americans who strive for freedom "and the American way of life" by what they write, do, or say. It originates no material on freedom, merely rewards the work of others. Money for the prizes comes from some 2,000 different sources—educational and charitable foundations, business, industry, and individuals. The first awards, totaling $84,000, were presented at Valley Forge November 22, 1949, by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Its cash prizes, honor medals and certificates go to famous people and to unknowns, to big national organizations, and to small local groups. This year's winners were chosen by a jury of State Supreme Court judges and executive officers of national patriotic and service organizations. The jury was headed by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State College. Nominations for awards were made by the general public. More than four and one-half tons of speeches, exhibits, programs, scripts, recordings, films, and articles were submitted.

Among top awards was $1,000 to the Boy Scouts of America for its International Jamboree at Valley Forge on the theme "Strengthening the Arm of Liberty".

Amateur Fistic Crowns At Stake

Pittsburgh, Feb. 22—(AP)—Amateur boxers from all corners of the district battle tonight for eight Golden Gloves crowns.

Erie is pinning its hopes on Gene Toran, a 126-pounder, and Clyde Greene, heavyweight.

Ralph Brennan, of Butler, hopes to recapture the 147-pound title he won in 1946.

From Johnstown are Roosevelt (Kid Chocolate) Charles, 112-pounder, and Frank Spinotta, 126-pounder.

The eight champions—or their alternates—will leave for New York Saturday to vie for the eastern titles.

In this case, the "Games" are going to two individuals, for Argentina is run by a pair of small-time dictators, one male and one female—Juan and Little Eva Peron.

There was severe criticism of American athletes competing in the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin.

Adolf Hitler had been throwing his weight around for three terrifying years, yet U. S. Olympic Association officials permitted Der Fuehrer to further promote himself and Nazism through a tremendous American team, without which his production would not have amounted to much.

Now they are enabling Peron to further promote Peron and Fascism the same way.

THROUGHOUT the 11th Modern Olympiad, Herr Hitler gave further and unmistakable evidence of how he was going.

Retall left the royal box every time it was time to drape a wreath around one of what he called our black auxiliaries?

Now El Presidente Peron gets the opportunity to strut in one of his trick uniforms at a show largely put on by American athletes.

What a show window for a pompous, leaky roof despot imitating his heroes, Hitler and Mussolini.

The U. S. Olympic Association brass' argument in 1936 was the same as it is now. "These Games simply provide opportunity and inspiration for youth to get together in free, wholesome athletic competition."

What could be wholesome in a country where you have to do it the Perons' way or else?

Who and what is free in the Argentine? Certainly not the press. The Perons' most recent blow below the belt, delivered through a phony strike, shut down the old and world-respected newspaper, La Prensa. That was the Perons' way of getting rid of their foremost political rival.

Close Games Are In Prospect Tonight In The YMCA League

Y City League action should be close tonight, the Ramblers challenging the Youngsville Merchants at 7 o'clock and the Rockets going after the league leading Atlantic five at 8 o'clock.

The Merchants have been slipping this half, losing three games in five starts so far, but still hold the edge over the lanky Ramblers, who rely mainly on their height. A win for the Hookers would bring the two teams into a tie for next to last place, while a Youngsville victory wouldn't make any change in the last three place positions.

The second game could be do or die for the Rockets. A loss for the up and coming team would temporarily put them out of the race with a 3-2 count. However, if the league leaders should fail to win their fifth straight, it would mean a three way tie for the top spot team between the Rockets, Atlantic and the Style Shop.

Bill Weidert, Atlantic, will be defending his new lead as high game scorer tonight, after taking over last week with a 32 point scoring spurge. He now has nearly a one-point game average over Jim Peterson, Ramblers, who was pushed out last week.

The top eight men in the league with a 10 point average or better per game are:

	G	F	Pts.
Weidert (A)	14	95	22 212
Peterson (Ra)	15	80	53 213
Baldensperger N	14	82	53 193
S. Smith (Y)	15	85	20 190
Massa (A)	10	53	10 116
Jackson (Ro)	13	68	13 149
Simpson (S)	15	77	15 169
Nelson (S)	15	76	13 165

Dragon Wrestlers At Oil City Tonight

The Warren Dragon wrestling squad concludes its 1950-51 schedule tonight when they battle the Oil City Oilers.

The bouts will be staged at Oil City, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Conewango Club tenpin league match last night. Only a few pins separated the teams in two of the three games. Trevenens won the first round, 832 to 811, and dropped the next two by scores of 953 to 854 and 913 to 902. Dr. Otterbein, leadoff for the Trevenens, notched a 200-175-197-572 series, while Kirby led the Logans with 142-219-205-566.
